

Liquigaz opens pilot LPG retail store in Caloocan

Liquigaz Philippines Corporation (“Liquigaz”), the 2nd largest liquefied petroleum gas (“LPG”) supplier in the Philippines, opened its pilot LPG retail store in Camarin, Caloocan City last July 28, 2016.

The store opening marks the company’s strategic move to expand its retail business. The LPG retail stores cater to end-consumers, including nearby households, small businesses, and restaurants within a 3 to 5 kilometer area. Liquigaz plans to open 15 to 20 LPG retail stores within the year.

Liquigaz is a 90% owned subsidiary of Cosco Capital, Inc., the retail holding firm of Mr. Lucio Co.
